PARK'S.

Thousands of lovers of good dinners and late suppers have for years found the choicest and rarest of dishes on the tables of the PARK HOUSE in Montgomery Place, or, rather, Bosworth St. William D. Park is the oldest landlord in active service in the city, having entered the business April 1, 1835. His original establishment in 1842 was on the site of the present post office. He afterwards removed to Morton Place, and later to Central Court. In 1874 he established the Park House on the premises he now occupies. About the time Bosworth St. was opened, which comprises what were so long known as Montgomery Place and Chapman Place, Mr. Park secured on a long lease the estates formerly known as Nos. 4, 5 and 6 Montgomery Place and Chapman Place, of which No. 6 has been entirely rebuilt. The specialties of the cuisine of this house have made it noted among bon vivants all over the country. Scores of New Yorkers always go to Park's for a rarebit and musty ale when they visit Boston, and his larder is always supplied with every kind of game.—Boston Globe.

PREFACE.

The first issue of the Index appears before the students as the fruit of a plan to make each department better acquainted with its fellows.

Such a directory we believe has long been desired, both as a convenience and as an informant.

This, as all other publications in their first days, will doubtless in many respects be found wanting; but its readers will bear in mind that necessarily an Index prepared in December cannot record the variations of the entire college year. Thus clubs and societies, which elect members after the date of issue, will not be disappointed at the omission of such names. We desire to acknowledge with gratitude the aid of President Warren, President Greenough, Dr. Tourjee, Dr. Talbot, the librarians of the Law and Medical Schools, and of all who have in any wise assisted the compilers to introduce to the University a work which they trust will commend itself to all.

The editors trust that the readers will appreciate whatever excellence the pamphlet may embody, leaving omissions and mistakes to be rectified by time, experience, and kind suggestions of the students.

FOUNDERS OF THE UNIVERSITY.

LEE CLAFLIN,
ISAAC RICH,
JACOB SLEEPER.

The first to suggest and earnestly advocate the establishment of Boston University was Hon. Lee Claflin, father of Hon. William Claflin, LL. D., ex-governor of Massachusetts.

Under the influence of the counsels and promised co-operation of these two, and of his equally trusted friend and Christian brother, Hon. Jacob Sleeper, Mr. Isaac Rich decided to consecrate the bulk of his princely fortune to the enterprise, and thus to secure its early realization. To Mr. Rich belongs the two-fold honor, first of having actually inaugurated the projected institution, and second of being as yet its most munificent patron. The full credit of the founding, however, is due so indivisibly to the three original co-operators, Isaac Rich, Lee Claflin and Jacob Sleeper, that their names must go down to posterity in an association as close and beautiful as was in life their Christian affection and fellowship. — University Year-book, Vol. I.

PREFACE.

THE encouragement given to the editors on the first volume of the INDEX has prompted them to follow out their purpose of making the publication an annual production.

That we were justified in thinking the INDEX would become a valuable assistant to professor and student has been proved by the many words of appreciation which have been received.

With this issue is initiated the project of publishing whatever information can be gained regarding the alumni of the University, including their latest addresses, degrees received, and occupations at present pursued. We are able this year to present such intelligence of the graduates of the College of Liberal Arts with the assurance that if this plan meets with general approval and acceptance, in succeeding numbers the alumni of other departments will meet with a like attention.

We gratefully acknowledge the assistance of Dr. Talbot, Mr. Samuel Bennett and all others whose aid has been so necessary and so cheerfully given. While we have aimed at the greatest possible accuracy, some mistakes and omissions are unavoidable; yet we trust these may be so few that the authenticity of the pamphlet may not be materially reduced.

ACT OF INCORPORATION.

[Chap. 322, Acts of 1869.]

AN ACT

TO INCORPORATE THE TRUSTEES OF BOSTON UNIVERSITY.

Be it enacted etc., as follows:

SEC. 1. Isaac Rich, Lee Claflin, Jacob Sleeper, their associates and successors, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of the Trustees of Boston University, and they and their successors, and such as shall be duly elected members of said corporation, shall be and remain a body corporate by that name forever. And for the orderly conducting of the business of said corporation, the said trustees shall have power and authority, from time to time, as occasion may require, to elect a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, and such other officers of said corporation as may be found necessary, and to declare the duties and tenures of their respective offices; and also to remove any trustee from the said corporation, when in their judgment he shall be rendered incapable, by age or otherwise, of discharging the duties of his office, or shall neglect or refuse to perform the same, and also to elect new members of said corporation. The number of members shall never be less than ten nor more than thirty, and their qualifications and term of service shall be fixed at the first meeting of the corporation.

SEC. 2. The said corporation shall have full power and authority to determine at what time and places their meetings shall be held, and the manner of notifying the trustees to convene at such meetings; and also to establish boards of instruction in all departments of science and the arts, to elect a president of said university, and such professors, tutors, instructors, and other university officers, as they shall judge for the interest thereof, and to determine the duties, salaries, emoluments, responsibilities and tenures of their respective offices. And the said corporation is further empowered to purchase or erect, and keep in repair, such houses and other buildings as they shall judge necessary for the said university; and also to make and ordain, as occasion may require, reasonable rules, orders and by-laws, not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this Commonwealth, and with reasonable penalties, for the good government of the said university, for the regulation of their own body; and also to determine and regulate the courses of instruction in said university, and to confer degrees; but no degree shall be conferred except upon the recommendation of the appropriate faculty.

SEC. 3. The said corporation may have a common seal, which they may alter or renew at their pleasure, and all deeds sealed with the seal of said corporation, and signed by their order, shall, when made in their corporate name, be considered in law as the deeds of said corporation; and said corporation may sue and be sued in all actions, real, personal and mixed, and may prosecute the same to final judgment and execution by the name of the Trustees of Boston University; and said corporation may take and hold in fee simple, or any less estate, by gift, grant, devise, bequest or otherwise, any land, tenements, or other estate, real or personal; but the clear annual income of the same shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars.

SEC. 4. The clear rents and profits of all the estate, real and personal, of which the said corporation shall be seized and possessed, shall be appropriated to the maintenance and endowment of said university, in such manner as shall most effectually promote virtue and piety, and learning in such of the languages and of the liberal and useful arts and sciences, as shall be recommended from time to time by the said corporation, they conforming to the will of any donor or donors in the application of any estate which may be given devised or bequeathed for any particular object connected with the university.

SEC. 5. No instructor in said university shall ever be required by the trustees to profess any particular religious opinions as a test of office, and no student shall be refused admission to, or denied any of the privileges, honors or degrees of said university on account of the religious opinions which he may entertain; but this section shall not apply to the Theological Department of said university.

SEC. 6. The legislature of this Commonwealth may grant any further powers to, or alter, limit, annul, or restrain any of the powers vested by this act in the said corporation as shall be found necessary to promote the best interests of said university, and more especially may appoint and establish overseers or visitors of the said university, with all necessary powers for the better aid, preservation and government of the same.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect on its passage.

Approved May 26, 1869.

[Chap. 151, Acts of 1871.]

AN ACT

TO AUTHORIZE THE BOSTON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND THE TRUSTEES OF BOSTON UNIVERSITY TO UNITE.

Be it enacted etc., as follows:

SEC. 1. The Boston Theological Seminary is hereby authorized and empowered to transfer to the Trustees of Boston University, upon such terms and conditions as shall be fixed and agreed upon by said corporations, the school hitherto maintained by said Boston Theological Seminary, and all the powers, rights, privileges, franchises, property, claims, trusts and estates appertaining in law or in equity to said Boston Theological Seminary.

SEC. 2. When such transfer shall have been agreed upon, by the two corporations aforesaid, in meetings duly called to act upon that subject, and a certificate thereof signed by the presidents of such corporations shall have been filed in the office of the secretary of the Commonwealth, the Trustees of Boston University shall thereupon take and enjoy all the powers, rights, privileges, franchises, property, claims, trusts and estates appertaining in law or in equity to said Boston Theological Seminary, subject to all duties, restrictions and liabilities belonging thereto, and said Boston Theological Seminary shall thereafter remain a corporation only for the purpose of executing all such transfers, assignments and conveyances as may be deemed necessary to vest all such rights, property, claims and estates in the Trustees of Boston University, and for the purpose also of receiving any gifts, devises and bequests that may have been made to it by will or otherwise, and transferring the same as aforesaid.
